The chart above shows the Purchasing Managers’ Index (PMI™) for Myanmar. The PMI™ provides an overall index where 50.0 is the baseline for no change in the current month. An index above 50.0 indicates growth in the purchasing managers’ survey category; while an index below 50.0 indicates a contraction, unless the index is exactly 0.0, in which case there is no change.

PMI above 50.0 indicates expansion in the purchasing managers’ survey category. PMI below 50.0 indicates contraction, unless the index is exactly 0.0, in which case there is no change.
